35+ YEARS OF MAKING PEOPLE COMFORTABLE

Most people don't love having their photograph taken—and that's okay.

After 35+ years, I've learned how to give direction, help people relax, and make the process quick, easy and even a little fun.

Because a great headshot starts with someone who's comfortable in front of the camera.

“Brody did a great job. He's clearly experienced and has a great personality. Even better, all the pictures were back in less than 48 hours - almost unheard of...”
